ST. JOHN VIANNEY HIGH SCHOOL

KIRKWOOD, MO. VOLUME 13

John Shea, Editor-in-Chief
Thomas Seitz, Co-Editor
Rev. A. Piekarski, Moderator

Mr. Charles Eisele

Vianney's greatness lies not in its sports, not in its Student Council, not in its scholastic rating, but in its people. The individuals, students and faculty, who work for the good of Vianney are what make this school great.

We would like to recognize two such persons who have dedicated themselves to Vianney—Mrs. Virginia Schuchard and Mr. Charles Eisele. Each in his or her own right has made a celebration. They have exposed themselves to 750 young men each day in the hope that they will gain from what they have done.

To praise them would not be enough, for to praise is only to express one's thoughts. But to thank is to express one's feelings. So, on behalf of the staff of the TALON, along with the students, we wish to dedicate this '73 yearbook and all the work that went into it, to them. We hope that by doing this we may truly say thank you and continually celebrate with them.

I Want To Light The Torch

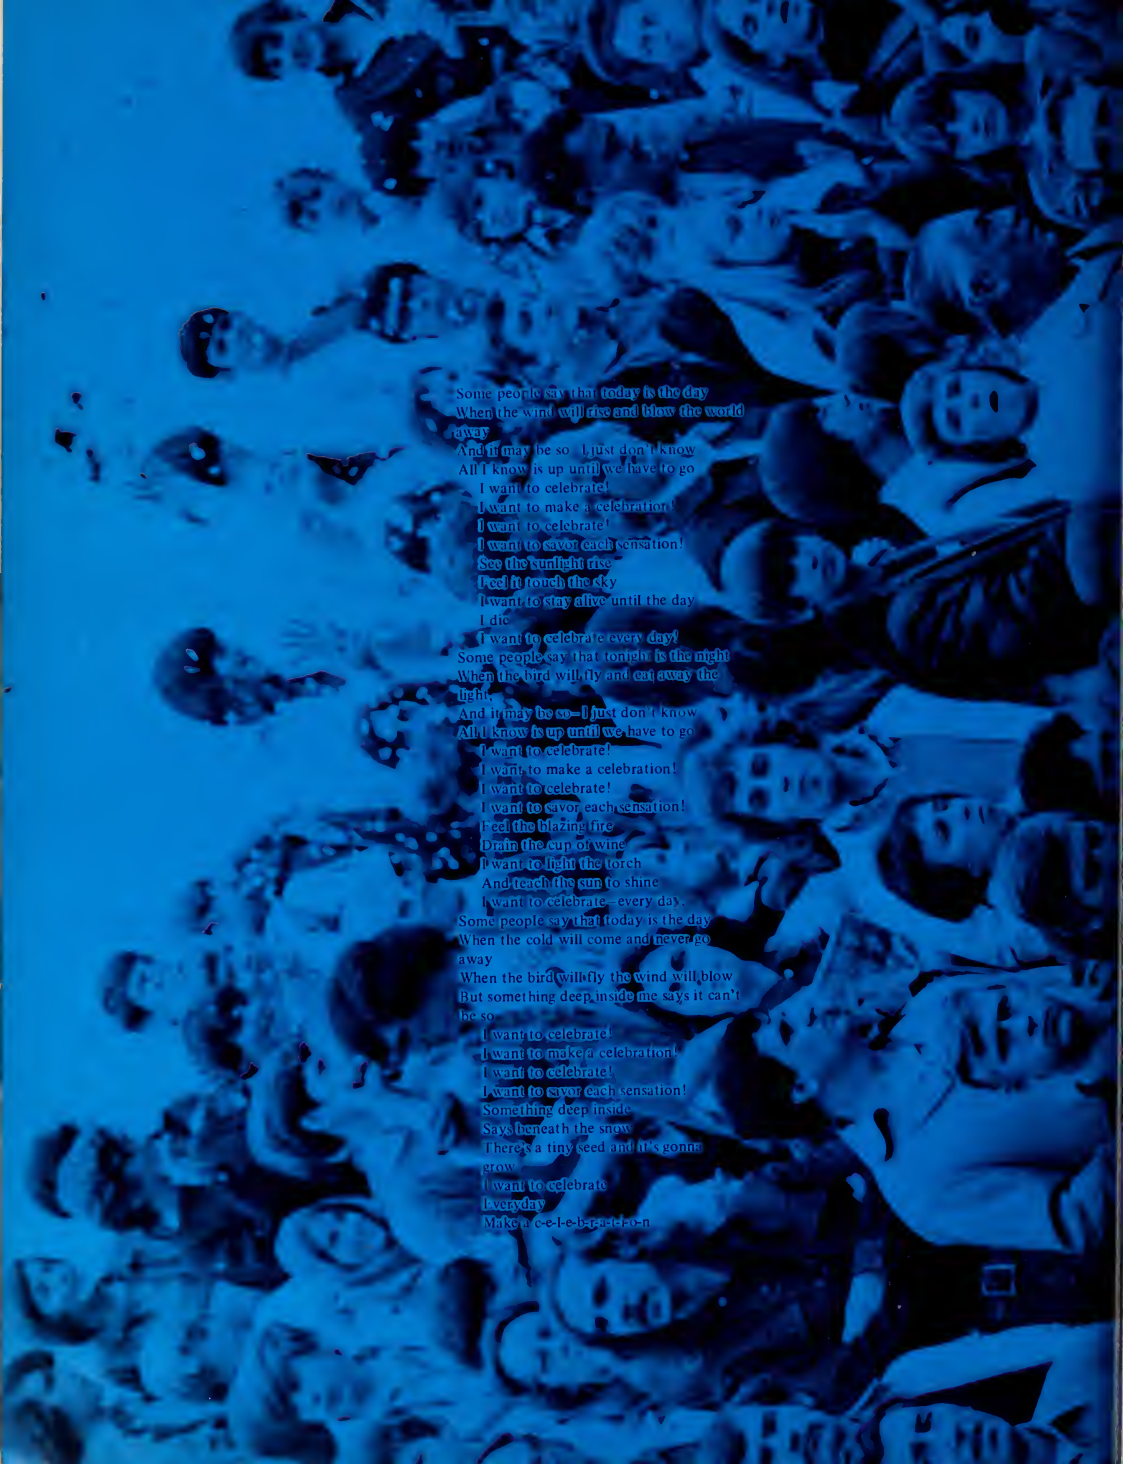
And Teach The Sun To Rise

I Want To Savor Each Sensation

See The Sunlight Rise
Feel It Touch The Sky

I Want To Stay Alive Until The Day I Die
I Want To Celebrate Every Day!

NEY



Some people say that today is the day
When the wind will rise and blow the world away
And it may be so—I just don't know
All I know is up until we have to go
I want to celebrate!
I want to make a celebration!
I want to celebrate!
I want to savor each sensation!
See the sunlight rise
Feel it touch the sky
I want to stay alive until the day I die
I want to celebrate every day!
Some people say that tonight is the night
When the bird will fly and cat away the light
And it may be so—I just don't know
All I know is up until we have to go
I want to celebrate!
I want to make a celebration!
I want to celebrate!
I want to savor each sensation!
Feel the blazing fire
Drain the cup of wine
I want to light the torch
And teach the sun to shine
I want to celebrate—every day.
Some people say that today is the day
When the cold will come and never go away
When the bird will fly the wind will blow
But something deep inside me says it can't be so
I want to celebrate!
I want to make a celebration!
I want to celebrate!
I want to savor each sensation!
Something deep inside
Says beneath the snow
There's a tiny seed and it's gonna grow
I want to celebrate
Everyday

October 28

On the very next night, the very spirited Griffins gathered for one of their traditional pep rallies. After this loud, but purposeful rally a roaring bonfire was lit. The flames were a mild warning to the Chaminade Flyers of the power of the Griffins.

It was on the next day however, that the real flames erupted. Led by Coach Don Heeb the Vianney Griffins met the undefeated Chaminade. This record was not to last. After a long, hard battle the Griffins won 6-0.

All happenings of Homecoming '72 were definite proof that the Griffins of Vianney High School are No. 1. These very special days were three to be remembered.

Masses Unite Students

Since Vianney is a Catholic school, it is customary that the student body come together once a month to celebrate the Eucharist. This year's Masses were truly something to remember. School Masses were held in the gym to commemorate some special feast of the Society of Mary, or a holy day of obligation or the week of Christian Unity. In addition to the school's chaplains: Fr. Piekarski, Fr. Mayer and Fr. Tobin, priests from the various parishes around Vianney were asked to say the mass for the student body.

Music at the Masses was usually provided by the students, with the help of Bro. Lootens and Mr. Noble. Preparations for the Mass and the choice of themes and readings were handled by the students. All of this made it possible for the students to become participants in the Mass and not just observers. The Masses were just one more way in which the Unity of Vianney was expressed and without which the school would be missing something vitally important.

Dances

Dances as always were a big hit at Vianney, providing a lot of good music to the great number that attended. The three major dances of the year were the Back-to-School, the Thanksgiving, and Winter dances. Besides these and probably more popular with the students were the five soc-hops following various basketball games.

Not only did the dances add to the social life of the student body, but also supplemented the Student Council's income. Nearly $2,300 was netted during the year as a result of the large turnouts at all the dances.

"Superman" Is Smashing Success

Vianney is rapidly becoming known for its excellent stage productions with the reputation of its two past very successful plays—"The Rainmaker" and "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown." And, on the last weekend of March of this year, the Vianney stage came alive once again with the music and laughter of another fine play. This year's production was "Superman."

The direction of the play was handled by Mr. John Burcke and the musical direction was done by Mr. Steve Nobel, the director of last year's "Charlie Brown." "Superman" was a rather large production, so both of these individuals deserve every bit of applause that the play received. This applause was also intended for the fine actors and actresses of "Superman." The lead role of Superman/Clark Kent was played by Bob Dolan. Tom Wethington gave a memorable performance as the villain, Dr. Abner Sedgwick. Tim Dunigan played the part of playboy, Max Mencken. The part of Jim Morgan was portrayed by one of Vianney's Student Council officers, Frank Hantak. Last year's Charlie Brown, Len Kopsky played the role of Father Ling. The two female leads were played by Laura Ackermann and Cam Wolff. Laura, also a member of last year's cast, played the role of the forlorn lover of Superman, Lois Lane. Cam, one of Vianney's Girl Reps, performed the part of Sydney, Max Mencken's secretary. Greg Chappius was also a member of the cast, playing the role of Perry White and also various others.

A special note of recognition is deserved by the entire chorus and the Flying Lings. Both of these were important to the success of the play and were certainly noticeable to all. All of those individuals who did the "behind the scenes" work also deserve much praise for their effectiveness and hard work.

It is plain to see from the success of "Superman" that the long hours of work and practice were worth it. But more important, by putting on another successful play, Vianney has definitely firmly established itself as a leader in theatrics. It is certain that Vianney students will continue to use and exhibit their acting abilities.

Lois must not be too enthused about Max's singing.

Girl Reps Work With Students

For an all boys school such as Vianney, there is a definite need to make girls aware of what is happening here. This is the purpose of Vianney's Girl Representative System. As in past years, area girls schools were invited to send two or three girls to the Girl Rep. gym night, where Vianney guys could get to know each girl. A few days later, one girl from each school represented at the gym night was chosen to be that high school's Girl Rep to Vianney. Meeting once a week, and under the co-ordination of Tom Seitz, the Girl Reps were given the opportunity to tell Vianney what was going on at their respective schools and exchange ideas for future projects with Vianney. At the same time, Tom would inform the girls of Vianney's events and would ask them to "spread the word" in their schools. The Girl Reps play an important role in all of Vianney's happenings and without their help Vianney's social functions would certainly not be as successful as they have been in the past.

Winter Carnival

One of Vianney's most enjoyable and profitable traditions has become its Winter Carnival. The 1972-73 Winter Carnival, held on February 17, was definitely one of the best ever, bringing in a profit of nearly $800.00. This rather large profit naturally corresponds to many hours of work and planning by both students and faculty members, especially Bro. James Droste, this year's carnival faculty moderator.

This year's Winter Carnival saw the return of many of the popular and always successful games such as the spear drop, coke poker, and roulette, but there were also many new and profitable games. These included the football toss, putting green, and hockey shoot (sponsored by the hockey team in case you wondered).

As has been the custom in past years, the homeroom which brought in the greatest profit in each division received a cash prize. Homeroom projects ranged from a movie to the ever popular balloon shave to a dance in the cafeteria.

From the great profit that was made and the many students who enjoyed themselves on this evening, it is easy to see that the 1972-73 Winter Carnival was a smashing success.

May Festival Better Than Ever

Once the weather cleared up, the May Festival again proved to be very successful and enjoyable. The Home and School Association, as it has done in the past, handled the booths and preparations for the festival. In addition to the traditional Ring-toss, hockey shoot, hole-in-one and others, something new was added. Instead of a chicken dinner, a steak and potato dinner was offered. Judging from the long lines waiting, the new idea was a tremendous success and delicious. In the evening, the annual dance was held, featuring "Festival." All in all, the 1973 May Festival was a grandiose success.

NCA

Shortly after the beginning of the second semester of last year, the student body and faculty were confronted with the idea of an NCA evaluation. Naturally, not too many students knew what this was. Under the coordination of Mr. Charles Eisele and Bro. William Chewning, this NCA (North Central Association) evaluation was explained as a self-evaluation process, by which the school should become aware of its strong and weak points. The self-evaluation process took well over a year of hard work by the administration, faculty, and student body. Every area of Vianney (each academic department, all activities, the administrative processes of the school, the Student Council, etc. . .) was carefully reviewed and evaluated. After Vianney had finished this self-evaluation, representatives of the North Central Association (an accrediting association for secondary schools, colleges, and universities) came to Vianney to evaluate our self-evaluation. During and after the visit of these representatives they made recommendations, criticisms and compliments. Both the self-evaluation and evaluation of the NCA representatives resulted in Vianney's having a much better understanding of itself. From this understanding, Vianney can and will work to make itself even more efficient and effective.

It must be interesting!

Griffin Staff

The Griffin carried on its tradition as one of the best high school newspapers in the area by virtue of many returning staff members and a number of creative writers. Bro. R. Schrader lent a guiding hand, but the bulk of the work was turned out by the students.

Scott Meier in the guise of a mild mannered reporter and his sidekick Oscar Groebl held down the positions of co-editors. Along with them, special editors, Mike Simpson, Tom Moder, Steve Ruzicki and Jim Schmiedeskamp spent many long hours working to make the deadlines in getting out the paper.

The paper kept the student body informed of current events and sports around the school. The Griffin, utilized its right of freedom of the press to criticize where criticism was needed, but also tried to print only facts.

Ring Day

The Juniors, the class of '74, passed still another barrier in their four year stay at Vianney by receiving their Junior rings. At this point the Juniors could consider themselves the leaders of the school. Having received their rings from Bro. Chewning the Juniors headed home to prepare for the night's activities.

The Ring Dance was an excellent conclusion to the day. Everyone present enjoyed the Holland decorations and the appropriate music of "Birth." All in all, it was a splendid finale to the ring day and the junior year.

This year's Home and School Association's variety show, "Fun City" had to be the best of its three presentations. The show packed the house all three nights. "Fun City" consisted of the singing, dancing and comedy of Vianney's Faculty and parents. All of this talent was directed by Mrs. Terry Ott and the music was provided by Bro. Harold Lootens.

Everything about "Fun City" from the dancing to the directing was excellent and made for an evening well spent.

SPORTS

Fall Sports

Well the Vianney Griffins opened their 1972 season with several question marks, the most notable one being this year's offense's lack of depth. However, Vianney showed a ball control offense, and it was an offense which led the area throughout most of the season in points scored. The Griffins finished with a total of 280 points, an average of 28 points per game, compared to the school record of 282 set in 1970. The defense showed it was tough averaging 6.5 points a game while posting six shut-outs tying a mark set by that 1970 team, a squad which finished 10-0.

The Griffins opened their season against the Southwest Longhorns. The outcome was never in doubt, as Vianney posted its first shut-out 26-0.

The Griffins next encounter was with the Celts of JFK. Vianney's starting unit again did not finish the game as the score mounted 48-0. The third contest was the first home game of the season with DeAndreis bowing to the Black and Gold for three in a row 40-0. Disaster struck in the form of overconfidence and turnovers in the fourth game, as the Falcons upset Vianney, 15-10.

The Griffins sought revenge the next two weeks, pounding Rosary at home, 42-13 before outscoring cross-town rival Kirkwood, 31-22. The following game was just a warm-up as DuBourg went down with a 43-0 defeat.

The stage was set for the biggest game in Vianney's history. Over 4,000 enthusiastic fans crowded Griffin Stadium in great anticipation. Both squads were equally balanced and impressive in all positions. In the fourth quarter the Griffins finally put together the only successful drive of that overcast Sunday afternoon. Mike Chambers bulled over from one yard out for the game's only points. Mike was named the game's MVP; the Vianney team was honored by KXOK as the "Prep Team of the Week."

The tremendous spirit and enthusiasm generated at the Homecoming Game was not to be found the following week at Roosevelt Field. The Dragons of St. Mary's accounted for Vianney's second loss, which cost the Griffins a CAC Co-championship and a potential state play-off berth. The Vianney Golden Griffins finished the season with a fine record of 8 wins and 2 losses, whitewashing Mercy 21-0 in their final home game. We will remember defeating two ranked teams, Kirkwood and Chaminade, placing 9 players on the CAC All-Conference teams, and five more on the All-District team.

The 1972 Vianney C-Team Eagles showed great promise for the future of Griffin football. Under the coaching of Bro. R. Schrader and Mr. D. Ripplinger the baby Griffs posted an impressive 6-0 record while allowing only 24 points and racking up two shutouts. Defense wasn't all the Eagles displayed. Their offensive team got into the heart of the spotlight by crossing the goal line at an average of 28 points a game and a total of 168 tallies of the year. The little gold machine stormed into the season with very impressive victories over Mercy 36-6 and Kennedy 30-6. The rest of the season these young men simply shot down victim after victim. Through the next three years if they can keep the Griffin spirit alive the future of Griffin football will be as bright as the past.

The '72 team showed that cross-country is becoming a popular sport at Vianney as they had their biggest and best team in the sport's four year history. The Griffins ran a tough schedule of meets, but the climax of the year was the CAC championship taken at Chaminade.

Mark Streeter led Vianney's harriers in all meets throughout the season, but mostly the harriers success came from running as a team. Other outstanding members of this varsity squad were Dennis Hinkamp, Jim Loyet, Dave Kelly, Tony Ebert, Mark Diehl, and lone senior Mike Freese.

Coach John came up with a fine team through hard work and long practice. With many returning lettermen and a strong B-team, he can hope for even better performances in the coming year.

Varsity Basketball

The 1973-74 version of Vianney basketball was not what it was expected to be. (7 wins, 14 losses) However the varsity cagers did supply the fans with some very exciting basketball. With seniors Mike Chambers, Rick Isaacs and juniors Neil Fiala, Dave Klipsch and others, the Griffins did come in second in the Vianney Tournament. The Griffins also had exciting victories over such teams as Aquinas and DuBourg, 2 of the 4 CAC champs. The Aquinas game which had to be the most exciting game of the season, was a game in which the Griffins applied a delay offense during the entire game and came out on top 39-34 with the high point man being Cliff Albers with 15 points. The high point game of the season came in the DeAndreis game when Mike Chambers pumped in 29 points.

The most shocking loss of the season had to be the loss to Kennedy in which the Griffins found themselves 23 points down at half time, but they battled back to within 5 points before finally being stopped. Even though the Griffs had a poor record they were in contention for the CAC title all the way up to the game against St. Mary's. The key to staying in contention had to be the big victories over Aquinas and Chaminade. In the Chaminade game Neil Fiala threw in 23 points and Dave Klipsh added 20 points in the 64-63 victory with Joe Wehrle scoring the winning bucket. On the special team awards, Mike Chambers was voted the MVP and captain of the team. Chambers also was picked to the 2nd team CAC squad. Joe Wehrle was voted the best defensive player while Cliff Albers had the best free throw percentage. In looking to next year, the future does look bright with four juniors, Kurt Wehrsten, Neil Fiala, Dave Klipsch and Cliff Albers, who all saw lots of action during the year, leading the way.

Baseball Is Best Ever

The 1973 baseball team proved to be the best ever at Vianney. With strong pitching from K. McGrath, R. Ott and P. Mulligan, and good hitting, the Griffins ended with a 1-7 record, placing 2nd in the CAC.

The Griffins started slowly, losing 2 out of 3, then went on to win 4 straight, taking the Brentwood tourney. This was the 1st baseball trophy ever won by Vianney. In the tourney, the Griffins defeated Maplewood 6-3 and Brentwood 9-0. The latter game played in a drizzle.

In CAC competition, the Griffins were in 1st place until the final game, losing a heart-breaker to St. Mary's 1-0, the CAC co-champ with Aquinas.

Augustinian transfer, K. McGrath won 5 with an ERA of 0.76. J. Wehrle led the hitters with a .369. J. Tabash was the Griffins captain. Seven players were named on CAC all-conference teams.

Kneeling: K. Repp, C. Powell, S. Wood-Smith, D. Murphy, J. Gokin, T. Pullaro, B. Slyman, R. Fiala, J. Wehrle, D. Dillender, M. McMullen, scorekeeper. Standing: Coach J. Boeckman, J. Tabash, M.
